DETAILED ACTION

1. The following restriction requirement is based on amended claims filed on 11/14/2008.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-17 and 29-30, drawn to a method.

Group II, claim(s) 18-23, drawn to a silica film.

Group III, claim(s) 25-28, drawn to a coating.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Where a group of inventions is claimed in an application, the requirement of unity of invention shall be fulfilled only when there is a special technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same corresponding technical features, which define a contribution over the prior art. See 37 CFR 1.475. The special technical feature of the present invention, a silica precursor formulation as recited in claims 1 or 18, does not define a contribution over the prior art, as is revealed by Tanaka et. al. (US

6,291,697), see col. 5, lines 60-67 and col. 6, lines 1-67. Consequently, a lack of unity of invention exists. See 37 CFR 1.475 and MPEP 1850.

3. Should the applicants elect Group III, an election of species is also required. Group II contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- an anti-reflection coating as recited in claim 25;
- an anti-fogging coating as recited in claim 26;
- anti-scratch coating as recited in claim 27;
- an anti-static coating as recited in claim 28.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Where a group of inventions is claimed in an application, the requirement of unity of invention shall be fulfilled only when there is a special technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same corresponding technical features, which define a contribution over the prior art. See 37 CFR 1.475. The special technical feature of the present invention, a silica precursor formulation as recited in claim 1, does not define a contribution over the prior art, as is revealed by Tanaka et. al. (US 6,291,697), see col. 5, lines 60-67 and col. 6, lines 1-67. Consequently, a lack of unity of invention exists. See 37 CFR 1.475 and MPEP 1850.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
